ADULT MINISTRY

Home Group Leader

Weekly basis; various locations

Leading a home group can provide opportunities to encourage others and help them grow in their faith. A home group leader needs to:

- complete the Discover LSCC Membership Class
- have a desire to facilitate discussions (not teach or dominate the conversation)
- have a healthy grasp of the Bible and Christian doctrine (no need to be a Bible scholar or expert)
- have a humble, teachable spirit
- be interested in people and meeting their needs
- be able to provide basic organization (take attendance, answer e-mails, etc.)

A home group leader is not required to serve as the host each week. Every home group decides where to meet. They may choose one home to host them every week, or rotate meeting at various homes.
